

WHAT ARE PATCH APPLICATIONS?

What is it?

Patching is like fixing holes in your roof. Applications (like your web browser or Office software) often have security gaps that hackers can exploit.

Why?

Regularly updating your software minimises those security gaps, making it harder for attackers to break in.

An example

If a security flaw is found in Adobe Reader, a patch is released to fix it. You should install it to ensure you are protected.